

Ruslan Biwoino

Ruslan Biwoino is a 22-year-old economics student from Germany and he is serving as Y7 Track Sherpa during Germany's G7 presidency. In his role as Track Sherpa, he coordinates deliberations and focuses specifically on how to make our democracies more resilient and inclusive. Before joining the youth engagement group of the G7, Ruslan represented German youth as a German Youth Delegate to the United Nations. When Ruslan is not studying economics, he is passionate about children's rights, especially the right to education. For that reason, he started working together with UNICEF Germany and the Global Partnership for Education (GPE) prior to his involvement with Y7.
